THE PERSON TO BE CONTACTED [illegible] PORTION [illegible] AMENDMENT?

6C-14.032 Disqualification Procedures.

(1) (T) The president will review the performance of each construction firm under contract, including, but not limited to, quality, quantity, project delay, cost overruns, inadequate workmanship, deficient management, etc. The president will review all circumstances surrounding instances of unsatisfactory performance and the quality of workmanship and may initiate disqualification proceedings for any firm determined to be unqualified.

(2) (T) If the president has probable cause to believe that a contractor is guilty of any of the conditions set forth in Section 7(d) of Article IX of the Florida Constitution, Section 120.57(3), Florida Statutes, Section 287.084, Florida Statutes, or Section 6C-14.022, Florida Administrative Code, the president may convene a disqualification committee. The president may also convene a disqualification committee if the president has sufficient information to warrant disqualification of the contractor in accordance with Section 120.57(3), Florida Statutes, specifically that grounds for disqualification exist. The president will notify the contractor in writing of the reasons for disqualification and the contractor's right to request a quasi-judicial hearing. Chapter 120, Florida Statutes.

(3) (T) Within 10 days of receipt of the notice of disqualification, the contractor may submit written evidence. As deemed appropriate, the president may request additional information from the contractor. If a written request for hearing is not timely filed, the president will make a final ruling on the matter. If a request for hearing is made, the matter will be referred to the Division of Administrative Hearings for a quasi-judicial hearing. Chapter 120, Florida Statutes.
