7.002 Tuition and Fee Assessment, Collection, Accounting and Remittance.

- (1) Each university shall establish by regulation procedures for the payment, waiver and refund of fees, fines and penalties appropriately assessed.
- (2) The university president or designee may approve deferred payment when financial aid is delayed in being transmitted to the student through circumstances beyond the control of the student or formal arrangements have been made by the student with the university for payment. Each university shall develop procedures and terms for such deferment.
- (3) For budgeting purposes, the tuition, out-of-state fee, Application Fee, a minimum of 50 percent of the Late Payment Fee, and a minimum of 50 percent of the Late Registration Fee shall be budgeted in the Student and Other Fee Trust Fund for state fundable credit hours. Fees for non-state fundable credit hours will be budgeted in the appropriate trust fund.
- (4) All proceeds from the Capital Improvement Fee, as authorized in Regulation 7.003, shall be remitt

Tuition and non-resident tuition shall be assessed on the basis of course classification: state fundable courses numbered through 4999 shall be assessed at the undergraduate level ~~(all courses at New College of Florida are undergraduate and shall be assessed accordingly)~~, state fundable courses numbered 5000-8999 shall be assessed at the graduate level, and those courses identified as medical by universities having medical programs shall be assessed as outlined in university board of trustees regulations.

- (7) Each university shall establish by regulation, procedures for the payment of tuition and associated fees. Such regulation shall provide that a student's course schedule will be canceled if payment, or appropriate arrangements for payment, has not occurred by the deadline set by each university, which shall be no later than the end of the second week of classes. Provision for reinstatement of canceled course schedules may be included in the regulation. The president or designee may extend the deadline for fee payment when payment by the student is delayed due to university actions. However, the president may choose to temporarily suspend further academic progress in lieu of canceling a student's course schedule in those cases where the student has partially paid tuition and the university guarantees full payment from an authorized and existing fund before the submission of the final

(11) A written appeal for a refund or other appeal action related to tuition and fee assessment, collection, accounting or remittance under this regulation must be submitted to the University within six (6) months of the close of the semester to which the refund or other appeal action related to tuition and fee assessment, collection, accounting or remittance under this regulation, is applicable.
